- It is the candidate's responsibility to check that their names and details are correct on the confirmation of enrolment, as they appear on their passport. The same details will appear on the attestation.
- Once set, the schedule of oral examination dates and times may not be altered.
- Candidates should arrive at the time indicated on the notification of examination timetable, which they will be receiving by email, and wait at the reception desk until the teacher or the coordinator drive them to the examination class. Late arrivals will not be accommodated.
- Oral examinations may be taken late in the evening. There may be a long gap between a candidate's written and oral examinations.
- Candidates will be required to bring official proof of identity on their examination day and the notification of examination timetable. Only passports, national ID cards and photo driving licenses will be accepted. Failure to produce one of the above-mentioned cards will deny candidates access to the examination room.
